

PEACE, JUSTICE, OUTREACH, AND SERVICE COMMITTEE (PJOS)

Purposes: To provide leadership and coordination for local and global outreach activities of CMF; to inform the congregation of and lead the congregation in peace and justice issues.

Composition:

At least four members, including chair, with two-year staggered terms.

Key Responsibilities – Outreach:

Provide overall leadership for CMF involvement with the following:

- Oakley Christians United; active participation with this local ecumenical group in Oakley
- Community Meal on the 2nd & 4th Tuesday of each month.
- People Working Cooperatively Assist with organizing volunteers for PWC workdays.
- Miscellaneous one-time projects: e.g. MCC kits, school supplies for neighborhood, schools, etc., in coordination with the MCC congregational representative.
- Engage children and students in the outreach activities of CMF.

Key Responsibilities – Peace & Justice:

- Receive and disseminate information from the wider church and other religious groups.
- Organize and carry out actions in which the congregation chooses to participate.
- Solicit other members to assist in these programs and missions.
- Attend peace conferences.
- Maintain a bulletin board for posting materials relating to peace and justice.